...wines. It's rich history has produced some of the best Châteaux there are to visit and enjoy.

and being a food basket for France, it is an awesome place for you and your friends to relax, get spoiled, and enjoy everything French in a 400-year-old dream Château.

A GROUP OF FRIENDS, OR BUSINESS ASSOCIATES...

...the privacy of Château de Jalesnes offers you complete and utter relaxation and peace of mind. Our forest filled with bird sounds and local wildlife will take you back to the glory days of the Loire Valley. Our Swimming Pool with its views over the fields of Sun Flowers and crops will take your mind away from everything else.

Our beautiful Château has been restored to the highest standards, our Suites are fully contained and offer all modern facilities. Our Butlers will see to your every need and our Chefs will continuously tempt your taste buds. Our Wine experts will indulge you with the best that France and the region has to offer.

IN FRANCE, FOOD AND WINE NEED LITTLE BY THE WAY OF INTRODUCTION, HOWEVER...

You will want to ensure that you experience the gastronomy of the Anjou-Touraine region at its best. Our Chefs create the most wonderful French cuisine to the highest possible standards using natural local ingredients. The Château carefully selects the finest and most suitable wines of the region to accompany your meals.

Meals prepared exclusively for you to suit your schedule. Our Chefs will recommend the best local product available at the time of your stay to ensure you are getting fresh, tasty and healthy meals.

The enduring attraction of French wine is not only its prestige, but also the variety of styles available. Wine connoisseurs preferences have changed over the centuries, encouraging the development of new styles of wine from the terrain and grape varieties available to France's vignerons.

Red, white, rosé, sweet, dry, sparkling, opulent, austere, mineral-scented, fruity – French vineyards have produced wines to match each of these descriptions.

The Loire Valley is home to many varietals and some of France's best wines. Our Wine Experts will not only lead you through the local wines, they will take you on a wine tour of France, from the luxury of Château de Jalesnes.
